Do a secret act of service for a friend.	Make a Thanksgiving craft! Write down what you made on this sheet.	On your mark, get set, go! Have a race with someone!	Learn a new joke and tell it to a relative over Thanksgiving Break.	Paint your spelling words. Write out your trickiest words on this sheet.
Write a list of things you are thankful for on this sheet (at least 20)!	Spend 20 minutes on Lexia Core5.	Write down the best thing you ate on Thanksgiving Day this year!	Find some old toys or clothes you don't need anymore and donate them.	Do someone else's chore. If you are an only child, ask your parents if you can do a chore that they normally do!
Volunteer at a homeless shelter or another type of shelter for those in need.	Help cook something on Thanksgiving Day. Write down what you helped make on this sheet.	Clean your room 😞	Go to bed 30 minutes earlier than you normally do.	Make a new friend. Then tell me something you learned about your new friend on this sheet.
Watch a movie. Write a summary of the movie on this sheet (or attach it).	Do 25 jumping jacks, 25 push-ups, and run in place for 25 seconds.	Ask a parent or a grandparent to tell you a story from their childhood.	Write down a Thanksgiving multiplication word problem on this sheet. Then, solve it!	Make a holiday decoration to hang in your room or in your house somewhere.
Eat a food you've never tried before. Write down what it is on this sheet.	*Memorize "The Turkey Shot Out of the Oven" by Jack Prelutsky and recite it for your family. It is a long poem, so give yourself lots of time to practice!	Look up a drawing tutorial in a book or online and learn how to draw something new! Don't forget to attach it or show it to Mrs. Fredrickson!	Call a relative you don't get to see very often. Have a conversation with them for at least 10 minutes.	Collect canned food to donate! Write down how many cans you collected on this sheet.

* If you complete this activity you can recite the poem for Mrs. Fanning AFTER Thanksgiving Break to earn a special prize 😊
