

Name: _____

Parent signature: _____

JANUARY HOMEWORK BINGO

Directions: Pick at least 5 activities to complete 5 in a row. Complete a blackout to earn a prize!

B	I	N	G	O
Have a play date with a friend.	Make paper snowflakes. Attach your best design!	On your mark, get set, go! Have a race with someone! Who did you race?	Play a game/sport outside. Write down what game/sport you played.	Write a story using these characters: snowman, Bob, Carly, Dr. Dreadful Attach it to this sheet.
Write your spelling words using three different writing utensils (pens, markers, crayons).	Draw a new cover for one of your favorite books. Attach your cover illustration (with the book title on it) to this sheet!	Write a letter to a neighbor and deliver it.	Research what your name means and where it came from. You can ask your parents or research online (with parent permission)!	Help your mom or dad cook dinner 😊 What did you help make?
Learn about a different country. Write 3 facts about it on this sheet.	Find a snowy place to make a snow angel.	Eat five different fruits! Write down what fruits you ate on this sheet.	Make up your own activity and write it here:	Do a secret act of service for someone at school.
Make pancakes with your family on a Saturday or Sunday morning. What's your favorite thing to put on your pancakes?	Write a poem about wintertime and attach it to this sheet.	Play with someone you don't usually play with at recess.	Write down a multiplication word problem on this sheet. Then, solve it!	Learn the words to a new song. What song did you learn? Bonus points if you perform the song for your family!
Do a science experiment! Draw a picture of what you did!	Shovel someone's driveway.	Write a "thank you" letter (or card) for your mom and/or dad for all that they do for you! Don't forget to give it to them!	Find a snowy place to go sledding!	Have a read-a-thon (for at least one hour). Draw a picture of where you read!

Name: _____

Parent signature: _____

FEBRUARY HOMEWORK BINGO

Directions: Pick at least 5 activities to complete 5 in a row. Complete a blackout to earn a prize!

B	I	N	G	O
Write/make valentines for the elderly and deliver them to a nursing home.	Play a card game. Write down what game you played.	Look up a tutorial for kids for how to draw George Washington or Abraham Lincoln. Draw one of them and attach it!	Watch the Olympics. Write down your favorite event and why you like it so much.	Go for a walk in your neighborhood. Write down 3 things you heard on your walk.
Make the longest line of dominoes you can! Don't forget to knock it down when you're done 😊	Pick someone to be extra kind to this month. Write down 3 specific things you did to be nice to them.	Write a story using at least 10 "conversation heart" candies in your sentences.	Celebrate Black History Month by learning about one of the following people: Ruby Bridges, Rosa Parks, Jackie Robinson, or Lonnie G. Johnson.	Read as much as you possibly can this week for the reading contest! Don't forget to stop for dinner and bedtime though!
Make a prediction for who will win the Super Bowl. Observe at least 30 minutes of the game and record the winner. Was your prediction right?	Write a division word problem that relates to Valentine's Day on this sheet and solve it!	Brush your teeth and floss every morning and night! You can mark it off on a calendar if it helps you keep track!	If it is snowy, leave footprints in the snow. If it is rainy, splash in some puddles.	Make homemade playdough and play with it!
Write a list of people you love/care about. Write what you like most about 3 people on the list.	Research a U.S. president online (with parent permission). Write down 3 facts you learned about them.	Make a scavenger hunt in your house. Have a sibling or parent do the scavenger hunt!	Write/make 3 or more valentines for Deerfield staff. This could include the principal, secretaries, custodians, etc.	Go to your city library and check out 3 books you haven't read before. They can be picture books 😊
Go to the grocery store and return all of the shopping carts to the cart corrals.	Eat popcorn and watch a movie with your whole family!	Find a new healthy snack to try. If you like it, it can be your new after-school snack!	Draw three different illustrations to go with a story you love . Attach them (and the story title) to this sheet.	Have a sleepover with a friend! A relative (like a cousin) can count for this activity.

Name: _____

Parent signature: _____

MARCH HOMEWORK BINGO

Directions: Pick at least 5 activities to complete 5 in a row. Complete a blackout to earn a prize!

B	I	N	G	O
Celebrate Dr. Seuss's birthday by making and eating green eggs and ham!	Do an activity that gets your hands dirty. Write down what you did.	Celebrate Poetry Day by writing a poem. Please attach it for me to read!	Build a tower out of plastic cups. How many cups high was it? Make a design change. Were you able to stack more cups?	Daylight Savings Time starts on March 11 th . Get to bed early since you will be losing an hour!
Write a story. Include leprechauns, rainbows, and gold at some point in your story.	Work on and complete your simple machines leprechaun trap!	Do 50 jumping jacks, 40 sit-ups, and 30 push-ups. You can split this up to more than one day!	Celebrate World Compliment Day by giving three people a meaningful compliment.	Spend time playing nicely with a younger sibling. If you don't have one, a younger neighbor or friend can work.
Celebrate Pi Day (3/14) by making a pie! Bonus if you look up what "pi" is.	Brainstorm 10 activities to do with your family and write them down. Save them to use over the next few months!	FREE CHOICE: Make up your own activity. Write down what you did!	Look up a recipe for oobleck online and make it! Bonus if you read, Bartholomew and the Oobleck!	Write a St. Patrick's Day division word problem and solve it. Attach it to your bingo.
Read as much as you can for a week! Keep track of your minutes. How many minutes did you read this week? _____	Help your mom or dad cook dinner. What did you help make?	Celebrate the beginning of spring by planting a seed. Any type of plant is okay 😊	Write 8-10 sentences about what makes you lucky . Attach it!	Paint your spelling words (must do 3x this month to mark this box)!
Listen to classical music (for at least 20 minutes).	Celebrate Women's Day by researching one of the following women: Amelia Earhart, Mother Theresa, or Dr. Sally Ride.	Talk to someone in your family about the chapter book you are reading. Tell them about the plot and characters.	Spend a rainy day outside splashing in puddles. Be sure to wear your raincoat and boots!	Brainstorm some April Fool's Day pranks and write one down on this sheet. Keep them fun (not mean)!

