FEBRUARY HOMEWORK BINGO

Directions: Pick at least 5 activities to complete 5 in a row. Complete a blackout to earn a prize!

B	I	N	G	O
Write/make valentines for the elderly and deliver them to a nursing home.	Play a card game. Write down what game you played.	Look up a tutorial for kids for how to draw George Washington or Abraham Lincoln. Draw one of them and attach it!	Watch the Olympics. Write down your favorite event and why you like it so much.	Go for a walk in your neighborhood. Write down 3 things you heard on your walk.
Make the longest line of dominoes you can! Don't forget to knock it down when you're done 😊	Pick someone to be extra kind to this month. Write down 3 specific things you did to be nice to them.	Write a story using at least 10 "conversation heart" candies in your sentences.	Celebrate Black History Month by learning about one of the following people: Ruby Bridges, Rosa Parks, Jackie Robinson, or Lonnie G. Johnson.	Work on Lexia!
Make a prediction for who will win the Super Bowl. Observe at least 30 minutes of the game and record the winner. Was your prediction, right?	Write a division word problem that relates to Valentine's Day on this sheet and solve it!	Brush your teeth and floss every morning and night! You can mark it off on a calendar if it helps you keep track!	If it is snowy, leave footprints in the snow. If it is rainy, splash in some puddles.	Make homemade playdough and play with it!
Write a list of people you love/care about. Write what you like most about 3 people on the list.	Research a U.S. president online (with parent permission). Write down 3 facts you learned about them.	Make a scavenger hunt in your house. Have a sibling or parent do the scavenger hunt!	Write/make 3 or more valentines for Deerfield staff. This could include the principal, secretaries, custodians, etc.	Go to your city library and check out 3 books you haven't read before. They can be picture books 😊
Go to the grocery store and return all of the shopping carts to the cart corrals.	Eat popcorn and watch a movie with your whole family!	Find a new healthy snack to try. If you like it, it can be your new after-school snack!	Draw three different illustrations to go with a story you love . Attach them (and the story title) to this sheet.	Have a sleepover with a friend! A relative (like a cousin) can count for this activity.
